

ON CAMPUS

By VALERIE SIMES

A gay satire on England's class system during Queen Victoria's reign is the theme of Gilbert & Sullivan's "HMS Pinafore" tomorrow night at 8 p.m. by Narbonne High School's Music Department.

The plot is based on a lowly sailor's (Robert Shaw) admiration for the Captian's Daughter (Sandra Hunt). His efforts to woo her are met with criticism by all. Furthermore, he encounters stiff competition in the form of Sir Joseph (David DeWeese).

Select students from the Madrigal and Accapella choirs, under direction of Miss Alice Sturdy, make up the cast.

"We've been working feverishly for an outstanding performance," claims Robert Shaw, the male lead.

Tickets are selling for 75 cents for students and $1 for adults. A survey made last week indicates that the "HMS Pinafore" is headed for a sellout.

All Narbonneites who attended the Senior Prom last week will never again believe that Friday the 13th carries a jinx for they will testify that the prom was a triumphant success.

The "Springtime in Paris" decor was carried out in the refreshment booths which were miniature replicas of Parisienne cafes that served petits fours, punch and other continental sweets.

After-Prom rendezvous centered around the "Coconut Grove," an old favorite. The "Moulin Rouge" was closed last week thus forcing the Prom crowd to find a new spot for dining and dancing.

Opening its doors to the need was the "Plush Horse" which provided ballroom, records, plus a piano—all for a five-dollar cover charge to the delight of youthful cotillionites.

Girls in formal gowns, smiles, and a few tears are the signs that a Girls' League installation assembly is approaching. Next Tuesday, vows will be exchanged between new and old officers during fifth period.

The boys also will perform a ceremony for the installation of officers, but with less sentimentality, no doubt,—at least on the surface.

That formerly all-male event, the Athletic Banquet, will be invaded by females this year.

Not to be outdone, the Girls Athletic Association is staging its banquet June 3. Plans include the recruitment of members of the Lettermen's Club to serve as waiters—Never underestimate a woman!

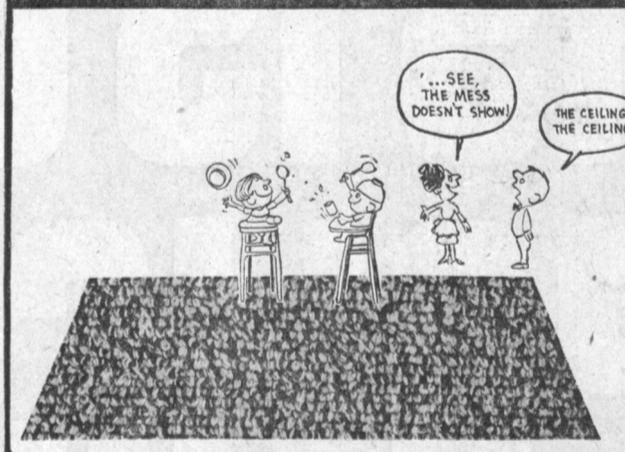

Only three weeks of school remain which means that finals must be crammed for and term papers hastily contrived, and then—the "Glorious Liberation."

"Miracle Glasses" Erase Years from Appearance

Most people postpone the adoption of two-range glasses (bifocals) as long as possible because they know that the conspicuous lens-segment divisions make them look older than their years. Bifocals have become the trademark of the over-forty, and many consider them to be a disadvantage in business and social life. According to Dr. J. M. Soss, optometrist in the Harbor area for 32 years, excellent two-range vision may be enjoyed with glasses that are free from unsightly dividing lines. These modern bifocals—Blended Lenses—assure better vision, too, because the eyes do not jump or see double when shifted from one lens power to another. Dr. Soss suggests that bifocal wearers drop in at his ground floor offices at 1268 Sartori Avenue and see how amazingly their appearance will be improved by Blended Lenses. There is no obligation, of course. Not expensive; easy terms. Open Friday evenings and all day Saturdays. Offices also in Wilmington.
